Together in Brokenness and Wholeness

The Church's Unique Role in the Current Mental Health Crisis

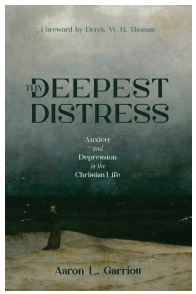

Simonetta Carr

RELEASE DATE 19 JANUARY 2027

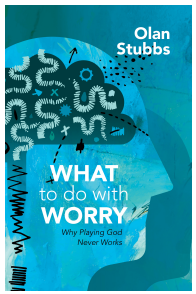

RELATED TITLES

9781527114005
£9.99 $13.99

9781527108981
£8.99 $12.99

9781527104501
£3.99 $4.99

DESCRIPTION

A Compassionate Vision for Healing and Hope

In Together in Brokenness and Wholeness, Simonetta Carr explores how Christian theology can reshape the way churches respond to mental illness, suffering, and human weakness. Blending biblical insight, history, and real-life experience, this thoughtful guide challenges stigma and offers a hopeful vision of care rooted in compassion and truth.

Readers will discover:

- A biblically grounded perspective on mental illness and suffering
- Encouragement for churches, caregivers, families, and friends
- Historical and theological insights that challenge common assumptions
- A vision for Christian community marked by humility, patience, and hope

AUTHOR

Simonetta Carr is the author of many books and biographies, including the Christian Biographies for Young Readers series, 'Church History', 'Broken Pieces and the God Who Mends Them', and 'Questions Women Asked'. She lives in San Diego with her husband and her youngest son.

ENDORSEMENTS

Anyone who cares about bringing biblical theology to the problem of mental illness will cherish Carr's book. She balances theology, history, physiology and compassion in practical ways. The church desperately needs to learn from this woman of God. She has walked the walk, not just talked the talk.

Eileen Scipione
CCEF-certified biblical counselor, author and speaker

Simonetta Carr, who has learned patience from hard experience, shows us what a more biblical alternative looks like, and how it can build us up in patience, hope, and friendship with the mentally ill.

Phillip Cary
Author, 'Good News for Anxious Christians'

This little book punches above its weight class and in a short amount of space gives hope to Christians who struggle with brokenness and sin. Simonetta Carr ... writes from a broken heart that has the present reality and future hope of wholeness through God's grace in Christ.

J. V. Fesko
Harriet Barbour Professor of Systematic and Historical Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi; author, 'Reforming Apologetics: Retrieving the Classic Reformed Approach to Defending the Faith'

... historically informed, biblically sound, and compassionately written. It addresses real-world brokenness with helpful answers. I love this book.

Wes Bredenhof
Pastor and author

TECHNICAL DETAILS

15583

ISBN 9781527115583
BISAC REL012120
PRICE £8.99 $9.99