DESCRIPTION

Discover the Greatest Person Who Ever Lived—One Question at a Time

Who is Jesus, and why does he matter? In this engaging book, Sinclair Ferguson explores the life, teaching, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ through thirty clear and compelling questions.

Readers will discover:

- Why Jesus came into the world
- What he taught about God and his kingdom
- How he showed power over sin, sickness, and death
- Why he died on the cross and rose again
- What it means to follow him today

Accessible, biblical, and thought-provoking, this book is the perfect introduction to the person at the heart of the Christian faith.

AUTHOR

Dr. Sinclair B. Ferguson is a Ligonier Ministries teaching fellow and Chancellor's Professor of Systematic Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary. He previously served as senior minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Columbia, South Carolina.

ENDORSEMENTS

This is a book parents purchase for their children, only to find themselves reading it with equal delight, their own hearts freshly encouraged by the glorious truths it conveys.

Marty Machowski
Pastor, Author of The Gospel Story Bible and the Gospel Story Curriculum

I wish I had been given this book when I was a teenager or that I'd been able to give it to my own teenagers. Thankfully, today's parents will be able to gift it to their children as a resource that will inform, equip, and strengthen them for the years ahead.

Tim Challies
Author, 'Seasons of Sorrow'

Once again Sinclair Ferguson helps us to ask good questions so that we will learn to love, trust and follow Jesus.
