AUTHOR

Raymond C. Ortlund Jr. is the Lead Pastor at Immanuel Church, Nashville, Tennessee. He was formerly Professor of Old Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois. His PhD is from the University of Aberdeen, Scotland. He serves on the council of the Gospel Coalition.

ENDORSEMENTS

Here exegetical skill is employed with the practical day-to-day life of the believer always in plain focus. I heartily commend this valuable work to both pastors and lay people alike.

John Armstrong
Director of Renew and formerly a Pastor for twenty years

On the front cover, Eric Alexander tells us that this is a good book. On the back cover, he is joined by five other authorities, who tell us the same. And they are all correct - the book is to be whole-heartedly recommended.

"The overwhelming impact of this study is to fill us again with wonder at the greatness of God and the greatness of the salvation he gives to all who come to him through Christ."

Mark Johnston
Minister, Groomsport Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Bangor, Northern Ireland
