ENDORSEMENTS

This book, with its detailed yet highly readable story, sets the pattern for others to follow. It is high-class biography, accurate and broad in scope, yet immensely interesting and informative.

Allan Harman
Research Professor of Old Testament, Presbyterian Theological College, Melbourne, Australia

Don MacLeod has used a wealth of primary sources... to recreate the life of a leading lay champion of the Free Church of Scotland.

David Bebbington
Professor of History, University of Stirling, Stirling

"Don MacLeod navigates an ocean of detailed evidence with consummate skill... A page-turner and eye-opener.

Sam McKinstry
Professor of Business and Financial History, University of the West of Scotland, Paisley

In telling this tale, Macleod has vividly brought to life the story of a man who was gregarious and generous. This book is a splendid example of the best kind of history.

Sandy Finlayson
Director of Library Services & Professor of Theological Bibliography, Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
