AUTHOR

Jamie Freeman was born with cerebral palsy and not expected to walk or talk. However, God had a wonderful plan for Jamie's life and used his trials with CP to make him into a trophy of grace. Now married with three sons, Jamie is active preaching the Gospel and resides in Arkansas.

ENDORSEMENTS

Read this book and grow in grace. Meet Jamie and see that grace embodied in his walking and talking.

Mark R. Talbot
Associate Professor of Philosophy, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois

Jamie Freeman's story is one of triumph over tragedy and a wonderful testimony to God's power and grace in his life... his testimony and insights will inspire and challenge you.

Danny Forshee
Lead Pastor, Great Hills Baptist Church, Austin, Texas

...His personal story is riveting, inspiring, challenging, and completely countercultural. This message will not be welcomed in some quarters, but it's right at home with the bloody cross of Jesus.

Hershael W. York
Victor & Louise Lester Professor of Preaching, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

To be able to say that his affliction "was an act of the grace of God" tells you a lot about Jamie and this book. You won't agree with everything he says, but he's earned the right for you to hear him say it.

Sam Storms
President, Enjoying God Ministries
