What parent, Sunday School teacher or Pastor would not want a Christ-centered, Biblically faithful and understandable story written for children that is also well illustrated and well written? Now we have one which will not only benefit our children but will be loved and devoured by the adults who read it to them.

Harry L. Reeder III
(1948 – 2023) Senior Pastor, Briarwood Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Alabama

This Christmas story begins rightly in Eden, explaining not just that Jesus came, but also what prompted His coming, namely humanity's fall into sin. Beautifully written and illustrated, this Christmas story clearly emphasizes what the Scriptures emphasize, that Jesus Christ is God's gift to us, the Savior of the world, who came into the world to save us from our sins. I look forward to reading The Christmas Story with my own children and recommending it to family and friends, not only during advent, but throughout the year as a precious reminder of who Christ is and why He came.

I love that the Christmas story begins with mankind's fall in the Garden of Eden. None of the biblical portion is left out. All portions of each gospel are beautifully joined together into the same great story. The pages are numbered so that a parent can read a small portion each day and the younger children will not get distracted.
