In Defense of the Fatherless

Redeeming International Adoption & Orphan Care

Sara Brinton and Amanda Bennett

RELEASE DATE 20 JANUARY 2015

RELATED TITLES

DESCRIPTION

MARKETING POINTS

Challenges our understanding of adoption and orphan care

Powerful and thought provoking

Questions for discussion and reflection

AUTHOR

Sara Brinton is a writer and social entrepreneur with a passion for reforming international adoption and orphan care. She lives in Austin, Texas with her husband Mark and their four children, including daughter Gabrielle who was adopted from Uganda.

Amanda Bennett is a lawyer living in in Kigali, Rwanda with her husband and son. She serves on the board of directors for Reeds of Hope, a non-profit serving vulnerable families and children in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

ENDORSEMENTS

...will challenge, convict and fuel a conversation that is much needed today for the church to move forward in international adoption and orphan care passionately, wisely, and ethically.

Jason Kovacs
Co-founder of Together for Adoption, Austin, Texas

...makes us all ask the questions: are we, as the church, caring for orphans and vulnerable children well? And how can we be doing better?

Megan Parker
Co-Founder, Abide Family Center, Jinja, Uganda

...the book every adoption and family preservation advocate has been waiting to read.

Jessica Honegger
Founder and CEO, Noonday Collection, Austin, Texas

...reveal some of the sobering and rather painful realities in overseas adoptions.

Bill Bertsche
Executive Pastor, The Moody Church, Chicago, Illinois

TECHNICAL DETAILS

15561

ISBN 9781781915561
BISAC REL012030
PRICE £7.19 $9.99