The wit and work of May Nicholson

Amazing testimonies from the Preshal Trust

Where hugs and holiness operate side by side!

AUTHOR

Irene Howat is an award–winning author and poet who lives in Scotland.

ENDORSEMENTS

May has given us another lovely book, filled with personal stories that are not just hers but those who have found love and hope through Jesus at Preshal Trust ... another treasure that has a story for us all.

Shirley Berry
South West Regional Coordinator, Bethany Christian Trust

Another page-turner as we are taken into the heart of a world of amazing grace ... you will love the hilarious accounts of the missing chihuahua and the romance which began in the prison cell. You will be drawn into the transformative ministry of Preshal and introduced to a culture where hugs and holiness operate side by side.

David Meredith
Mission Director, Free Church of Scotland, Edinburgh

In all my life I've seldom met a human being with such Christian conviction and caring attitude to her fellow man ... her inextinguishable enthusiasm is so overwhelming that you can only admire and applaud her tenacity to better peoples' lives. May is a star and has a compelling story to tell which will inspire you.
