ENDORSEMENTS

This major and magisterial book... the most important yet by this shrewd author. It must be read.

Rt. Revd. Maurice Wood

A really excellent account... This is a shrewd and well-balanced assessment of an outstanding man. Not only an authoritative biography, but it is also highly readable.

Lt. Col. Sir Julian Paget

..is never supercilious and respects the complexity of [its] subject...recounts innumerable instances of heroism, yet in the end Christianity is the hero of [the] story...give it a try.

The Sunday Times

This is a respectful, cautious biography... but there is a good tale to tell, deliberately uncluttered by too much analysis or interpretation.
