AUTHOR

Richard Bewes (1934 – 2019) was the author of several beloved books of faith including 'Talking About Prayer', '150 Pocket Thoughts', and 'The Goodnight Book'. Bewes was the rector of All Souls Church in the centre of London from 1983 until his retirement in 2004. In 2005 he was awarded an OBE for his services to the Church of England.

Ian studied Geology and Physics at London University and has spent most of his working life involved in manufacturing industry. He has occupied positions mainly in Marketing and Management to Board Director level and for 4 years was a consultant for an international company specialising in communications development. He currently serves as VP for Sales, Presbyterian & Reformed Publishing

ENDORSEMENTS

I adapted this book from Richard's excellent 'Top 100 Questions' because young people are increasingly being challenged about their faith in quite aggressive ways. The idea behind this book is not to 'disprove' the questioner but to give you the conversational answers you need to start a dialogue.

Ian Thompson
VP for Sales, Presbyterian & Reformed Publishing

"This book will be an excellent tool for all, young and old, who are thinking about what Christianity about what Christianity means in their lives and will provoke further thought and study."

William Gowdy, Covenanter Witness, Reformed Presbyterian Churches of Scotland and Ireland

"Each of the five sections has questions which people often ask... each has very interesting answers [that] make you think."

Simon Hoggarth (aged 14)

"This highly readable book provides direct, clear, concise and relevant answers to questions with which many people struggle."

Lindsay Brown, IFES
