War Child

Memories of a World War II Childhood

Maurine Murchison

RELEASE DATE 20 JANUARY 2010

RELATED TITLES

AUTHOR

Maurine Murchison was brought up during the Second World War but survived and went on to be an influential Christian in her day. Starting a ladies' bible study movement later on in life she was one of a committee of women who saw 500 women's bible study groups grow from just a handful of meetings.

ENDORSEMENTS

"Here is a splendid read for both young and old! It combines the story of a memorable childhood with sure guidance for a joyful and useful life. The many who admired Maurine Murchison (1935-2008) will recognize her portrait of the 'War Child', and those who did not know her will value meeting her in these charming pages."

Iain Murray
Co-Founder of Banner of Truth, Edinburgh, Scotland

"These stories are told vividly and engagingly so that our attention is held throughout. Part of each story is a spiritual application arising naturally and helpfully from what Maurine has related. She then gives us a biblical reference which is well worth looking up to see the truth in Scripture which has been shown in the story."

Evangelicals Now

"War child is an excellent book to help children connect with the past. They will read through Maurine's memories and realise that Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today and forever."

Carine MacKenzie
Best–selling author of children's books, Inverness, Scotland

TECHNICAL DETAILS

TRADE PAPERBACK
112 Pages
Reading Age: 7-11

ISBN 9781845505387
BISAC JNF049020
PRICE £4.99 $7.99