Philippians: Rejoicing and Thanksgiving

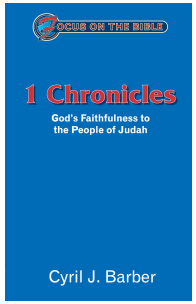

David Chapman

RELEASE DATE 20 MARCH 2012

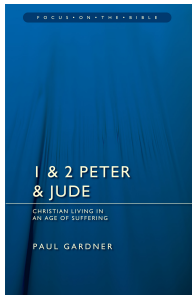

RELATED TITLES

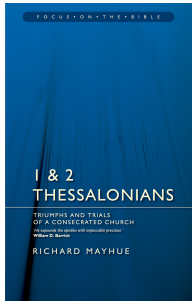

9781857929355
£9.99 $15.99

9781781911297
£12.99 $19.99

9781857924527
£8.99 $14.99

MARKETING POINTS

An autobiography and theology of Paul

Paul's focus on Christ and his pastoral concern

Read of Paul's deep-seated joy in Christ

AUTHOR

David Chapman is Associate Professor of New Testament and Archaeology at Covenant Theological Seminary in St Louis, Missouri. His interests include running and hiking.

ENDORSEMENTS

"My prayer is that the reader will better know and serve our Lord through considering anew Paul's letter to the church in Philippi."

David Chapman
Associate Professor of New Testament and Archaeology at Covenant Theological Seminary in St Louis, Missouri.

"David Chapman's Philippians commentary represents the finest scholarship directed by a pastoral heart well in tune with both the struggles the apostle consistently faced and also the Gospel joy he ceaselessly embraced."

Bryan Chapell
Pastor, Grace Presbyterian Church, Peoria, Illinois

TECHNICAL DETAILS

LARGE TRADE PAPERBACK
288 Pages

ISBN 9781845506872
BISAC REL006070
PRICE £9.99 $15.99