ENDORSEMENTS

... the author loves Christ, shares her struggles honestly and writes with a sincere desire to encourage her sisters n Christ.

New Horizons Magazine

I commend this fine, new book...with a prayer that we all read and follow her Biblical counsel to fully understand the condition we are in and flee quickly to the One who truly satisfies our deepest longings and our true desires.

Michael A. Milton
President and Senior Fellow at D. James Kennedy Institute for Christianity and Culture

I just got back from a conference with with this author as our speaker. She spoke on the themes in this book. It was truly life changing and I can't wait to start the book.

Janet Morgan

"By focusing on Biblical truths and examples, Kruger opens our eyes to the scope and depth of covetousness in our lives, while also drawing us into the path of holiness and a life honoring and glorifying God."

Diana Lynn Severance
A historian with broad experience teaching in universities and seminaries, Spring, Texas
