The Bible is where God speaks

Let's listen to the Bible and take it at its word!

AUTHOR

Paul Wells is emeritus professor of the Faculté Jean Calvin in Aix–en–Provence, France and editor of the international journal Unio Cum Christo. After working in France as a theological educator for many years, he now lives in Liverpool. He has published many books in French including a new translation of Calvin's 'Institutes' in 2009 and more recently a two–volume theology.

ENDORSEMENTS

... this excellent book is a distillation of a lifetime of study and teaching and provides a comprehensive presentation of the doctrines of Scripture.

Evangelicals Now

"There is no issue more important to the church than the authority of Scripture. Now more than ever Christians need clarity and reassurance about this critical doctrine. For this reason, I am grateful for Paul Wells' new book which provides such a well-written, accessible, and faithful introduction to the doctrine of the Word of God. Deep enough for the scholar and clear enough for the layman, it is a book that deserves to be widely read."
