AUTHOR

A. W. Pink (1886–1952) was born in England and converted in his 20s. He was called to a pastorate in Colorado until 1921, after which he decided to concentrate on writing and speaking at conferences. The next year he started a monthly magazine 'Studies in the Scriptures' which he edited until his death.

ENDORSEMENTS

... biblical exposition with considerable emphasis on experimental godliness. Pink is often at his best when expounding Scripture characters.
