AUTHOR

Jack Selfridge (1921-2009) spent 38 years working in different parts of Africa as an evangelist and a Bible teacher. You can read about his life in Jack of all trades, mastered by one.

ENDORSEMENTS

"... studies are scripturally based, and then illustrated with simple examples which would be common to all cultures and easily understood by all age groups, thus making it universal in appeal ... the author faces a wide range of issues in showing how the ways of the world challenge Christian standards."

Peter Jones, Evangelical Press of Wales
