Resisting Temptation

Colin Peckham

RELEASE DATE 20 NOVEMBER 2005

RELATED TITLES

AUTHOR

Colin Peckham (1936–2009) was Principal of Faith Mission Bible College, Edinburgh. Mary Peckham (nee Morrison) (1932–2010) was born on the Isle of Lewis and was converted in the 1949 revival. She spent fourteen years in evangelistic ministry, seeing true revival on two occasions in her ministry, before marrying Colin in 1969. They are both survived by three adult children and two grandchildren.

ENDORSEMENTS

It sets the scene, describes temptation, warns against danger areas and danger times and has very practical, down-to-earth on how to escape these temptations both practically and spiritually. This reviewer does not know of any other book that gives such excellent consel, advice and warning that is, at the same time, Biblically based, compassionate and practical.

Spencer R Cunnah & Mark A Williams
Evangelical Magazine of Wales

TECHNICAL DETAILS

POCKET PAPERBACK
80 Pages

ISBN 9781857922479
BISAC REL012070
PRICE £3.99 $5.99