AUTHOR

Born in Caernafon, Wales and became a Christian in his first term at theological College. He has been the pastor of Heath Evangelical Church in Cardiff for over 35 years. He is the author of a book on revival (a subject close to his heart), a book of poetry and has written hymns as well.

ENDORSEMENTS

A good, brief book by a man, who was a faithful pastor and preacher in a large church in Cardiff, for forty years. In it, he explains what happens when someone becomes a christian, and their subsequent life thereafter. A series of chapters covers terms, such as regeneration, sanctification, providence, repentance, fellowship, faith, and many other issues. He also explains the part of the conscience, mind and will in the life of a christian, compared to that of a non-christian. There are also chapters showing how christians should deal with temptation, and approach the issue of forgiveness.

A very good piece of devotional reading, which I found to be quite heart-warming. In addition, this short book may help in clearing up some often misunderstood terms. It will help people who are seeking to live a well balanced christian life.

Andrew Young, Fraserburgh (currently living in Bridgend).

God's Workmanship emphasises salvation by grace alone which results in gracious holy living with a passion for true revival. One of the choicest chapters is that on providence. To read it is to draw hearts in wondering love to the One who gave Himself for us and the gives and again "all things"

The Gospel Magazine

"No froth here, but sensible, applied, Christian thinking to awm the heart and send forth the will in the highest desires for the Lord Jesus Christ"

English Churchman

"However, throughout the book, he also emphasies the absolute importance of a personal and individual experience of salvation by the grace of God through faith in Jesus Christ. The book addresses serious issues but doesnt lose the simplicity of a genuine love for God. Helpful for those who want to study without stress. I found it approachable and illminating"
