ENDORSEMENTS

"This book is an important, helpful and challenging book for individuals and churches who have lost the excitement of prayer and the hunger to meet God. Ian underlines clearly the urgent need to learn that the only thing the disciples ask Jesus to teach them was... TO PRAY."

Jessie McFarlane

I have known Ian Newberry for over 30 years... Living most of his life in the needy land of France gives him an important vision and balance. One of the great needs in the Body of Christ is the renewal of the prayer meeting and this book will help make it happen. Let's not only read, but put into practice its message.

Ian Newberry has never ceased to challenge me in that most difficult area of my Christian life, my prayer life. This book not only gives that challenge but also offers real practical help in reviving your church prayer meeting. It's biblical, it's extremely practical - A book not only to be read but to do!
