AUTHOR

The late Eric Russell was an ordained Church of England Minister. He was better known as a college lecturer, training teachers in religious studies. He also wrote about the history of Liverpool diocese.

ENDORSEMENTS

"It is very good to have Ryle's story told afresh by someone who understands it so well...Ryle was an Anglican to remember."

J. I. Packer
(1926–2020), Board of Governors' Professor of Theology, Regent College, Vancouver, Canada

This book looks at the life of JC Ryle from his privileged background through to the personal hardship he endured. This book, written in a very clear and straightforward style, will be of value to a wide readership and is warmly recommended.

Knox Hyndman, Covenanter Witness
