ENDORSEMENTS

... preachers and pastors should regard it as indispensable reading.

Evangelical Times

"Paul Brown has done the Christian world good service in restating a truth often dismissed or ignored in hermeneutical discussions, namely, the crucial importance of the Spirit's work in interpreting the text of Holy Scripture."

Revd Philip H Eveson, Principal, London Theological Seminary

"... as timely as it is important, and I heartily recommend it."

J. I. Packer
(1926–2020), Board of Governors' Professor of Theology, Regent College, Vancouver, Canada

"In understanding and interpreting the Bible, in depending more on the Holy Spirit and experiencing the power of the Bible in your life, this book can help you."

D. Eryl Davies
Elder, Heath Evangelical Church, Cardiff
