ENDORSEMENTS

There is a widespread flight from theology in our churches. The result? - a merely 'feel good' Christianity, spiritually flabby, weak as water. We must, must, must, get Christians to study Bible doctrine. We should work hard at getting this book into the hands of family members, giving it to our youth group members, commending it from our pulpits.

Geoffrey Grogan
(1925-2011), Principal of Glasgow Bible College and well-respected author

Dr. Dixon is a systematic theologian, and his material is well organized. Hence the ease with which a reader makes his way through the book. I recommend the book to Christians who want to know what to believe - and to theologians too!

C. Donald Cole, Moody Broadcasting Network

'In today's sitcom-stupid society, wisecracking can sometimes still stab awake people, especially young people, whom anything else would send to sleep. So there is a real job out there for this jokey-sober workbook on Christian Foundations to do.'

J. I. Packer
(1926–2020), Board of Governors' Professor of Theology, Regent College, Vancouver, Canada

'Whenever Larry Dixon writes about doctrine, it's very understandable AND practical. He writes in a way that not only satisfies your intellect, but warms your heart and motivates you to action.'

Dr. George W. Murray, President, Colombia International University, South Carolina, USA
