Long regarded as one of the pre-eminent theologians in America, Roger Nicole(1915-2010) was Professor of Theology, Emeritus, at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida.

ENDORSEMENTS

Popular theology at its best. Nicole's addresses deal with the great doctrines of the faith in a thoroughly biblical way, always allowing the Word of God to speak for itself... will encourage, challenge and build up the people of God.

David McKay
Professor of Systematic Theology, Ethics and Apologetics, Reformed Theological College, Belfast, Northern Ireland

"Our salvation, our assurance of it, and our consequent growth in grace depend, in large measure, upon our grasp of the subjects he addresses here. May you become more deeply rooted in God's grace as you read!"

Ligon Duncan
Chancellor and CEO, Reformed Theological Seminary

"Dr Roger Nicole is one of the most effective communicators amongst evangelical theologians in the western world. I could not speak too highly of this book. It is a treasury of rich Biblical truth."

Eric Alexander
Conference speaker and formerly minister St George's Tron, Glasgow for 20 years

"In the pages of this book Roger Nicole brings us into the world of sane and satisfying Calvinism through cogent exposition, colorful illustration and compelling application. It will serve well as a primer for those new to the Reformed faith and as a refresher for those who know it well."

Mark Johnston
Editor, Banner of Truth Magazine
