AUTHOR

Janie Buck (1931–2019), wife and mother of two children and six grandchildren, was a Bible teacher and speaker. She and husband Dr. William P. Buck worked part time with Campus Crusade for Christ for 35 years. They were teachers and mentors in Briarwood Presbyterian Church. Janie authored four other books and numerous articles.

Mary Lou Davis, for many years a worker with Campus Crusade, now works with Campus Outreach, a student work of Briarwood Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, Alabama.

ENDORSEMENTS

'I do not believe that anyone can read this exciting and moving story of lives lived for the kingdom of God without becoming a better person through the experience.'

D. James Kennedy
(1930-2007) Late Pastor of Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

'This is the page-turning story of one of the most remarkable ministers of the Gospel I have ever known. I wish that every young minister could spend a year under the tutelage of Frank Barker. A great read about a mighty man of God!'

Timothy George
Founding Dean of Beeson Divinity School, Samford University, Birmingham, Alabama

'The story of Frank Barker is an amazing account of how God uses the faithful and the humble. In a marvelous way Christ sought him, saved him, and made him an effective instrument for the building up of the church. What a remarkable and encouraging legacy!'

John MacArthur
Chancellor Emeritus, The Master's University and Seminary and Pastor–Teacher, Grace Community Church, Sun Valley, California
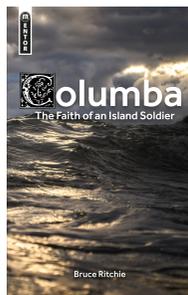

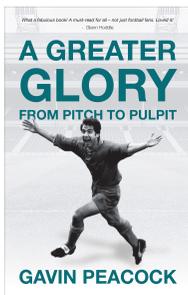

He was born in 1932, not 1928
