ENDORSEMENTS

His practical, vulnerable wisdom comes from deep personal experience. Here is healing medicine for all who care about the family.

Harold L. Myra
Exec. Chairman Christianity Today

It is eminently practical, warmly relational and scripturally based. Responding to his insights will make for all of us family relationships that are even more meaningful.

Ted Engstrom
President, World Vision

A biblically and faith-based, pragmatic resource for families and for those of us who work with families.
He is realistic and honest, and provides a healthy map for daily living.

Ralph H. Earle
Former President of American Association of Marriage and Family Counsellors

An excellent reference book for young people setting out on the adventure of life, for married couples seeking help in dealing with problems or for ministers involved in counselling extended family situations.
